

MOHD SHARAFUDDIN BIN MOHAMMED SHAHDAN

STAFF NURSE

Dedicated medical professional experienced in providing quality nursing care in acute care settings. Proven ability to provide compassionate, patient-centered care while effectively managing multiple tasks. Well-versed in leading and educating nursing staff on proper patient care techniques, new equipment and technology. Focused on ensuring patient safety and satisfaction while providing high quality care.

Contact

Phone

+60133159476

Email

Sharafuddin.shahdan@gmail.com

Address

75450, Melaka

Education

2010

International Islamic University
Malaysia

Qualifications

- Critical care nursing
- Analytical problem solver
- Patient education
- Multidisciplinary teamwork

Licences

- Advanced Cardiovascular Life Support (ACLS)
- Basic life support(BLS)

Language

English

Malay

Experience

March 2023 - current

ICU/CCU Pantai Hospital Ayer Keroh

Staff Nurse

- Adhered to infection control protocols to prevent cross contamination between patients.
- Educated families and patients regarding patient conditions and treatment options.
- Monitored, recorded, and reported symptoms or changes in patients' conditions.
- Performed emergency nursing procedures such as airway management, cardiopulmonary resuscitation, and advanced cardiac life support.
- Examined patient vital signs and reported patient condition changes and responses.
- Assisted physicians with exams, treatments, procedures, and diagnostic tests.
- Worked collaboratively with interdisciplinary teams to develop comprehensive plans for discharge planning needs.

December 2015 - January 2023

CCU, Institut Jantung Negara

Staff Nurse

- Adept at assessing, planning, implementing and evaluating patient care plans for optimum outcomes.
- Assisted with research studies related to cardiovascular disease prevention or treatment options.
- Facilitated interdisciplinary rounds with a multidisciplinary team to discuss best practices for managing complex cardiac cases.
- Consistently applied critical thinking skills to assess changes in patient condition promptly and accurately.
- Developed strong relationships with patients through compassionate communication techniques.

October 2015 - December 2015

Oncology Ward, MajlisKanser National

Staff Nurse

- Provide palliative and supportive care towards patient diagnosed with cancer as well as assisting physicians in giving chemotherapy treatment.
- Trained new staff members on proper techniques for administering chemotherapeutic agents safely.
- Provided emotional support for families dealing with difficult situations or diagnoses.
- Educated patients and families regarding infusion therapy treatments, side effects, medication management, and safety protocols.

January 2015 - October 2015

Operating theatre, Columbia Asia Hospital Puchong

Staff Nurse

- Assist surgeons particularly during multiple discipline operation which includes general surgery, ophthalmology, obstetric & gynecology, orthopedic, ENT and urology as well as involving in the CSSD department.
- Evaluated patient progress and reported changes in vital signs or behavior promptly to supervisors.
- Proficient in operating medical equipment, including ventilators, infusion pumps, and cardiac monitors.