SUMMARY PROFILE

As a detail-oriented and analytical accountant, I specialize in government loans, financial statement analysis, and audit compliance, helping state government organizations maintain financial integrity and optimize funding opportunities. Formerly an Experienced Audit Associate at Mazars (now ForvisMazars), I gained extensive exposures across diverse industries including property development, manufacturing, and investment sectors. My hands-on experience in auditing financial statements, assessing internal controls, and ensuring regulatory compliance has strengthened my ability to deliver precise and actionable financial insights.
